DEFERRED ARTICLES.

THE WEST.

Mr. C. M. Louthan, of Berryville, Virginia, a young lawyer, who for six or eight years was Commonwealth's Attorney for Clarke county, has been relating in the Richmond Dispatch his experience in the West. Mr. Louthan, like many other ambitious Americans, not being content to let well enough alone, left Virginia in October last in search of fame and fortune in some one or other of the Western States. He traveled through parts of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Missouri and Kansas, and he has come back "a sadder and a wiserman," content to east his lot with his own people. Everywhere he went he found the professions both of law and medicine overcrowded; business in all its branches fearfully flat, and from all quarters the cry of hard times. The net result of his observations was that any man who bas a reasonable prospect in Virginia ought not to leave in the hope of hettering his fortunes in the West, certainly not now; and also that those whose prospects at home do not seem favorable, will find the causes of depression that have affected the Eastern States are operating in the Western with perhaps greater force. In the finest agricultural counties of Northwestern Missouri corn was selling at 15 cents per bushel, cats at 12½ cents, and pork at $2 per cwt. The struggle of the farmers to make both ends meet depresses the business of the merchant and the manufacturer. Mr. Louthan adds:

"In that country Shylocks are imposing burdens grievous to be borne. It is a common thing to demand one and a half to two per cent, a month for the use of money. In Kansas, where I spont several weeks, the virgin soil is being covered with liens to suswer the demands of the merciless money monger. In Missouri, where the soil in some counties is fabulous in depth, there are liens sufficient to paralyze the energy of the tiller, though its depth extended to the antipodes. * * * The West is great in all conceivable resources, but these resources are locked and paralyzed by the terrible de-pression of the times. I went to the western country a stranger. The people, especially in Kansas, were claiming that all of the elements of progress and development were centering right there. A few days upon the plains of 'bleeding Kansas' opened my eyes. Where men could make a business of lending money at rainous rates, it was not hard to understand that sooner or later there must be a fearful collapse. Kansas is the best advertised State in the Union. In many respects it is a fine State. If, however, a lendant. farmer happens to raise thirty bushels of | Extract from Decree of April 10th, 1878: dreds of poor fellows who are sold out under deeds of trust and chattel mortgages."

FISHERY INTERESTS.

We return thanks to Fish Commissioner McDonald, of Lexington, Va, for a copy of his interesting report to the Governor of that State. We see by it that 350,000 young shad have been deposited in the Shenandoah -200,000 at Riverton, and 150,000 at Waynesboro. We are also pleased to see that the report does not overlook the important subject of providing fishways over the Great Falls of the Potomac. It says :

The Potomac has always been obstructed by the granite wall seventeen feet in height, down which the river plunges to the level of tide. Surmount this, and we give to the Valley of the Shenandoah fisheries rivaling in value the products of her fertile lands .-A fish-way over these falls should be built by the United States. Four States would where in the benefits of it. It is necessary, in order that the people of the Potomac basin should derive any benefit from the appropristion for the propagation and distribution of fish. It is necessary, in order that the Potomac fisheries-of such vast importance to the people of the district-may be mainfained. It does seem unreasonable that large sums of money should be spent each year in stocking the waters of the interior and the great lakes with fish, and yet the people of a large section of our State should fail to derive any benefit from this lavish expenditure because it is a question whether the power to appropriate money to build the fish-way is a prerogative of the general government, or one of the reserved rights belonging to the State.

FEELS Young AGAIN .- " My mother was afflicted a long time with neuralgia and a dull, heavy, inactive condition of the whole system; headache, nervous prostration, and was almost helpless. No physicians or medicines did her any good. Three months ago she began to use Hop Bitters with such good effect that she seems and feels young again, although over 70 years old. We think there is no other medicine tory prices. Our tacilities for furnishing any piece needed to repair half worn-out Stoves are such that parties calling on us can have the stoves repaired at a small cost, and save the expense, for a time, of buying new ones. Chest Refrigerators.

The demand for this article has greatly increased the past two or three years, for the reason that they ran be furnished at a much lower price than those usually obtained from the cities. Any carpenter can make one. The price we charge for lining them with zinc. together with the painting, affords a good, substantial article within the means of avery family.
